VOLUME 29 #10

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

LEPRECHAUN HUNT©

“We all had a great time!!!”

“Great family fun day!!!”

I am sure that the stories about the Leprechaun Hunt© will be passed on down families as a great tradition. Share Foundation/Sharing Meadows can be proud of the Leprechaun Hunt©. It's simply unique in all the world.

The grounds are in great shape with loving care. The food by Philippe Joseph, musical entertainment, plenty of hay rides, a great lake with boats and fishing all added to the Leprechaun Hunt©. But, of course, the actual hunting was the biggy. This year's leprechaun hunters were very busy and thorough. The hunters were everywhere! Many a “war story” will come out of this year's hunt.

And the monies made will do so much good for other abled adult people.

It personally does my heart good to see so many people enjoying themselves so much. Sharing Meadows is growing and more importantly people are growing in joy and the realization that God loves them.

FISHING

Fishing in God's Lake at Healey's Lodge in Manitoba is a delight. I've enjoyed it each year for about 30 years. This year my fishing partner was Greg Grimmer of Highland. We caught some great sized fish and plenty of them. I was surprised to catch a perch. Course, it was the largest and only one. It is always enjoyable to experience good fishing and be with friends.

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Kathleen Kelly

Since it was built in 1995, the camp building at Sharing Meadows has always been known simply as the camp building. 8 years was long enough to go without a name so we're happy to announce that the camp building is now the St. Timothy Center. A generous donor, who wishes to remain anonymous, requested that the building be named the St. Timothy Center, calling it the "jewel of the Sharing Meadows complex." We agreed that it was a fine name and contacted Weber Sign Co. in Michigan City to make the letters for the sign like they did for the Elias Storage Building and the Smolen Pool House.

Lou Czyzewski and Father Blaney burn the mortgage for the St. Timothy Center

After the sign was installed on the newly named St. Timothy Center, it was time to plan a fitting celebration. And since the mortgage on the St. Timothy Center was paid last December, we thought we'd add that to the celebration too! Sunday, June 29 was selected for the day of the event to coincide with the start of the 3rd week of summer camp.

The St. Timothy Center at Sharing Meadows

Under blue skies and warm June sunshine, our guests gathered together to witness the official naming of the camp building as the St. Timothy Center. Father Blaney blessed the building, offered a prayer for the donor and the people who use the center, and a passage from scripture was read from St. Paul's letter to Timothy. The joy continued when each one of our guests was able to put a copy of the mortgage into the fire. Lou Czyzewski was treasurer of the Board when the mortgage was obtained so he and Father Blaney signed the original papers and it was quite appropriate for the two of them to place the mortgage certificate into the flames and burn it to ashes.

The celebration continued when the party moved to Father Blaney's home for a cookout. Memories were shared of the many joyful times that have taken place in the St. Timothy Center and happiness came from the realization that the center will serve other abled adults and their friends for many years to come. God bless all of the people who helped to make the St. Timothy Center a reality at Sharing Meadows and God bless all of the people who use it!

2003 SHARE CLASSIC

Judy & Greg Hagan are ready for a day of sunshine and golf!

The 2003 Share Classic took place on June 23 at Innsbrook Country Club in Merrillville. The weather was beautiful and everyone who attended and volunteered had a great time! The day started with check in at 11:00 a.m. followed by a great lunch of burgers and hotdogs provided by Innsbrook to energize the players for the long day ahead. The carts took off from the clubhouse around 1:00 p.m. for a shotgun start and the competition was on. Each foursome was playing best ball, although there were other challenges throughout the course such as longest drive, beat the pro, Globe Star's $10,000 putting contest and Harrah's hole-in-one rewards. After a long 18 holes, the golfers made their way back to the clubhouse to receive their door prizes that were generously donated by businesses around the community. Dinner was served and the winning foursomes were announced and presented with trophies. Overall it was a great day!

Congratulations to the winners! First place went to Bernie Konrady, Jr., Pete Pairitz, Steve Richter, Steve Dahlkamp & John Dahlkamp. The second place team was Robert & Carolyn Belcaster with Jerry & Judy Iverson. Third place winners were Tony Maicher, Jerry Mussat, Steve Mandich & Pat Fagen.

Tom Doolin's tee shot on #11 was long and straight.

Father Blaney and his nephew, Joe, relax at dinner after a round of golf.

Congratulations to the following winners of the Drawing:

1 st Place:	Roma Cayia	Manistique, MI
2 nd Place:	Jeremy & Michele Hartmeyer	Lowell, IN
3 rd Place:	Eileen A. Cox	Hammond, IN

Tom Murray and Jim Giannini, friends for over 60 years, teamed up for the Share Classic

Chairperson Tony McCrovitz awards a trophy to Tony Maicher for his 3rd place finish.

A special thank you to all of those people who helped make the Share Classic possible. Chairman Tony McCrovitz and the rest of the golf committee, Tom Hathoot, Rich Miller, Jr. and Randy Grdinich, did a spectacular job preparing for the event. Also, Globe Star employees, Lorraine, Kim, Gerry, Jean, Kellie and Celeste, helped with soliciting door prizes and donations and also worked at the outing. Also, thank you to all of the hole sponsors, especially the two Eagle sponsors, Spitz & Miller Insurance and Meyer Glass & Mirror.

Finally, thank you to all of the golfers who participated. Without you, the Share Classic would not be a success. Your generous donations and gifts are greatly appreciated by the Sharing Meadow's villagers and campers. Thanks again for your support!

BEHIND THE SCENES AT CAMP SHARING MEADOWS

Ky Bertoli leads a teaching and discussion group at camp.

The success of Camp Sharing Meadows can be attributed to the spirited campers as much as the dedicated staff. Although a new set of campers came in and out of Sharing Meadows over the five weeks, many of the staff dedicated more than one week of their time and love to making camp a pleasant experience for the campers. The nurses, the cooks, the craft director, the teacher, the camp director and each of the counselors gave camp a distinct, upbeat atmosphere. The following paragraphs might give you a glimpse of some of the people behind the camp.

Although camp can be stressful for all of the staff, the woman responsible for planning events and activities overcame many challenges with a smile. This was camp director Natalie Missaggia's third summer at Camp Sharing Meadows, but first experience as director. To Natalie it is the camper's smiling faces at the end of each week that makes camp worthwhile. Her experiences at camp have reinforced Natalie's decision to become a special education major and lead to a life long goal of improving the special education system. "Everyone has the right and ability to learn. I want to make education possible for everyone," she said. Natalie's background and acceptance of all people made her an excellent camp director.

Getting to know the campers from a whole different perspective, camp nurse Helen Hathoot has served at Camp Sharing Meadows for around 7 years. Although the specifics of the camp nurse position did not allow for Helen to get to know the campers in the same manner that their counselors experienced, she got to know the campers on a physiological level by administering medication and solving a variety of personal problems. Helen saw each of the 25 campers several times a day allowing her to experience camp on a broad level. The camp nurse provided an essential service for the safety and comfort of all the campers as well as the staff.

Father Blaney introduces the staff at the closing ceremony of camp under the watchful eye of Bernie

Looking to serve others and gain experience, Ky Bertoli chose Camp Sharing Meadows as his summer service project through Notre Dame's Center for Social Concerns. He devoted his entire summer to Sharing Meadows by serving as teacher for all five weeks of camp, creating lessons and leading group discussions every morning centered around the theme "God Will Provide for All of Our Needs." During these open discussions Ky felt that he learned a lot from the campers. Everyone shared their personal experiences and many felt comfortable approaching him after the session for further conversation. By serving as teacher, Ky contributed to the spiritual element of camp that made it more meaningful to the campers.

Camp Director Natalie Missaggia and Ky Bertoli present awards to campers

By providing the campers with a way of expressing themselves, craft director Mark Williamson gave campers an invaluable opportunity. Art projects provided each individual the opportunity to apply their preferences to their craft whether it was simple or very decorative. The dance held each Wednesday evening was also a unique way for campers to shine. While Mark DJed, the campers had few inhibitions dancing from the minute the music started to the last beat. Mark gave each camper a way to be themselves.

Each staff member was an essential part of the Sharing Meadows experience. Their time and talents will not be forgotten! Thanks to all of the 2003 Camp Sharing Meadows staff!

Alternative Vehicles for Planned Gifts: Making a Gift of Life Insurance

A flag ceremony is part of camp each day

The swimming pool is always a popular spot at camp!

Campers Gary Heath, Cheryl Wilgus & Deb Wooten entertain with a skit

Performing the musical play "All You Ever Need"

Once upon a time there was a young couple, let's call them the Howards, who had two young children and a modest life. Over the course of their lifetimes, the Howards worked hard to make an honest living and educate their children. They are now happily retired and find themselves thinking about reorganizing their finances and lifestyle to suit their empty nest. Advice given to the Howards by a financial planner with regard to their life insurance policies is the same advice we would like to pass along to you. A careful review of their finances helped the Howards realize that they no longer needed to carry the amount of life insurance that they did when they had younger, dependent children. Their solution: donate their fully paid-up policy to the Share Foundation.

By making a donation of their policy to the Share Foundation, the Howards were entitled to a charitable deduction equal to the lesser of the premiums they paid over the life of the policy or the cost of a comparable replacement policy if purchased today.

Making a charity the beneficiary of a life insurance policy is one way supporters can make a sizeable future gift to the charity of their choice. By simply naming Share Foundation, for instance, as the beneficiary of your policy, you retain lifetime ownership of the policy which means that you retain the right to cash it in, borrow against it, or even change the beneficiary. Because your gift is a contribution that will actually be made in the future, policy owners are not eligible for charitable deductions on premium payments made during their lifetime; however, because the policy's proceeds will be included in your gross estate, your estate will be able to take an estate tax charitable deduction.

It turns out that the Howard children were also supportive of the idea and the oldest child even purchased a small whole life policy and designated Share Foundation as the owner and irrevocable beneficiary. As a result, the annual premiums that are paid become a charitable deduction!

Over the next few months, we will address many frequently asked questions about making a gift of a life insurance policy and creating life insurance trusts. We will also keep you informed of the possibilities a gift of this nature can provide for you and your family while also continuing to ensure and support the dream of Sharing Meadows.

As with all matters concerning estate planning, please consult your financial advisor or tax specialist. If you would like more information about ways to contribute to the endowment fund for Sharing Meadows or other Share Foundation programs, please call the office at 219.778.2585.

Remembering Irene B. Zimmerman, int. Mr. & Mrs. Larry D. Anthony

In memory of Arthur Zmierski, int. Steve, Phil, Jim & Staff – Kvaerner Songer Inc. Portage Office

MEMORIAL DEADLINE

Just a friendly reminder that all memorials are due by the 15th of each month in order to be printed in the following month's GOOD NEWS. For example, if you want to have a memorial printed in the September issue, your memorials needs to arrive in our office by August 15th. Share Foundation has a deadline to meet as well with our printer and if we do not have your memorial by the 15th of each month, your memorial will be delayed an additional month. Thank you for your understanding.

MEMORIALS

Memorials are a special way to honor the memory of a loved one or celebrate a special occasion for ourselves, our family, or our friends. We are grateful for all memorial donations, large and small, that are received but we want to remind you that our policy is that thank you letters and acknowledgement cards are not sent for any memorials received that are less than $10.00 per name. They will be printed in the GOOD NEWS but no cards or letters will be sent. Due to the increasing cost of paper, postage and time to send cards and letters, it is not good stewardship to spend the donations you have entrusted to us to fill mailboxes with mail.

Memorial donations of $10.00 or more per name will continue to be handled with a thank you letter, acknowledgement to family and listing in the newsletter. If you do not require a thank you letter, please mark the envelope so that we can code your account and we can save the cost of a letter and use the funds for our programs for other abled people. Thank you for your understanding!
