MARCH 2010

VOLUME 36 #5

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

Bishop Melczek was kind in giving me a book for Christmas. It is a compendium of various priests' feelings on the Mass. Believe it or not, I've been reading it during quiet times on my Florida trip, especially if it's raining.

One of the authors wrote comparing the Passover Meal to Mass. Both original meals were before the main event – the freeing of the Jews in Egypt and the crucifixion of Christ. Both were to be commemorated.

During the annual Passover Meal, the father or leader would recount how God had wondrously freed the Jewish people from slavery in Egypt. And he would recount more recent times when God had particularly shown His special care. The Jewish people often felt the real presence of God at these events.

Early on, when I served at Sacred Heart Church in Michigan City, we had a Passover Meal after the Holy Thursday Mass. It was at a Passover Meal that Christ instituted His first Mass. There are many connections. At Sacred Heart Church, the Passover Meal was not entirely a pious affair. We enjoyed a great meal together and joyfully sang from deep in our hearts. Our oneness with each other was deeply felt. God's presence is not always a solemn event. More often, He is in the midst of joyful love.

I hope that as you prepare for Easter, you reflect on how God has helped you, maybe with employment or other support; with health or good medical treatment; with loving relatives and friends. Maybe God has clearly – or dimly – shown you that you have a special purpose in life. You are needed! God bless you!

JOIN THE FRIEND'S CLUB

The best club in town is renewing memberships and inviting new people to join. This Club makes a big difference to the Villagers at Sharing Meadows as they realize that friendship is the most important ingredient in the recipe of life. When your membership packet arrives in your mailbox, take a few minutes to renew your membership and while you're at it, invite a friend to join too. Membership remains at $40 per year and you will be joining a special group of people – Father Blaney's friends – to support the community of Sharing Meadows.

Friends make our life sweeter just like your membership makes the Friends Club sweeter. Join today and allow us the privilege of calling you one of our friends! Hidden Winner: Matt Kerger, Schererville, IN 46375

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Kathleen Kelly

Sometimes I have difficulty falling asleep. My mind is full of thoughts – tasks to complete, decisions to make and problems to solve – and it's hard for me to relax and give in to sleep. I realize that worrying doesn't accomplish anything because come morning, the same problems will be there waiting for solutions. I have to make a conscious effort to clear my mind and relax; realizing that sleep will help me to see things clearer the next day and trusting that the right answers will be found.

So many times in our lives we need to clear our minds to get rid of the obstacles that keep us from seeing the obvious. I was reminded of this when I received literature from the Indiana Governor's Council for People with Disabilities in celebration of March as Disabilities Awareness Month.

The theme this year is Free Your Mind. The poster shows a group of children of different ages and ethnicities – with and without disabilities – lying in a circle on the grass, hands clasped and gazing at the sky with optimism. The text on the poster reminds us that by embracing people's differences, we open ourselves to a world of new possibilities. By freeing our minds we see the potential inside everyone and expand our horizons along with our circle of friends.

The poster was made to increase awareness of disabilities among the public but it's also typical of life here at Sharing Meadows. Whether we are making a pot of soup for the entire community, throwing a bowling ball down the alley, or glazing ceramics, EVERYONE brings their unique gifts and talents to the task at hand.

March may be the month that's officially designated as "Disabilities Awareness" but at Sharing Meadows, we celebrate and give thanks for each other's abilities each and every day. Because we have freed our minds, all of us are appreciated and our potential is always recognized, encouraged and valued!

CELEBRATE ST. PATRICK'S DAY and FR. BLANEY'S RETURN

Our talented chef, Fr. Blaney, takes time to enjoy the delicious food

Come to Sharing Meadows to celebrate St. Patrick's Day with Father Blaney. There will be smiling eyes all around the room on Sunday, March 14th beginning with a Mass at 1:00pm in St. Timothy Center followed by fellowship and food prepared by Chef Blaney. Word has it that he will be serving corned beef and cabbage, boiled potatoes, carrots, rye bread and a bit of green for dessert.

We plan to have entertainment with Irish music and an Irish Joke contest as well, so practice your musical and joke telling skills.

The cost for this afternoon of entertainment is $10 with children free when accompanied by their parents and grandparents. Reservations are a must and you have until Wednesday, March 11th to reserve your place for the celebration; please call Kerry in the office at 219.778.2585.

Rich & Kathy O'Thielman enjoy the St. Patrick's Day celebration

Just a friendly reminder that all memorials are due by the 15th of each month in order to be printed in the following month's GOOD NEWS. For example, if you want to have a memorial printed in the April issue, your memorial needs to arrive in our office by March 15th. Share Foundation has a deadline to meet as well with our printer and if we do not have your memorial by the 15th of each month, your memorial will be delayed an additional month. Thank you for your understanding!
