AUGUST 2004

VOLUME 30 #10

FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

You can tell when you're getting old when your belt doesn't buckle but your knees do. I am getting older. But the physical and mental work of Sharing Meadows keeps me young.

The Leprechaun Hunt® will be over by the time that you receive this newsletter. Probably all of the Leprechauns were found, including the $1,500.00 one.

We tried to make this – the 10th – extra special with great entertainment, food and hospitality.

Many people worked hard and long to bring success to this. They can only be described as faithful, patient, energetic, truly caring people. God bless them! What would the Leprechaun Hunt be without them.

Next month we will have more of the details. But, a BIG THANK YOU to all who helped. God bless you.

LEPRECHAUN HUNT 2005

I hope you enjoyed this year's Leprechaun Hunt®!! We had a great time and are already thinking of new ideas to make next year's hunt even better. Mark your calendars now for the 2005 Leprechaun Hunt® on Sunday, August 7th!

SHARE OUR DREAMS DINNER GALA AND SILENT AUCTION

Mark your calendars now for the 10th Annual Share Our Dreams Gala on Friday, November 5. This will be a delightful evening of dinner, dancing and a silent auction packed with wonderful items. You are invited to spend this delightful evening with us. If you would like more information about the Share Our Dreams Gala, please contact the Share Foundation office at 219-778-2585.

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Kathleen Kelly

Sharing Meadows has been a busy place this summer with construction of the new village and preparations for the 10th annual Leprechaun Hunt® but in the midst of all the activity, I managed to spend some time at one of my favorite places, camp. It's always a joy to greet the campers and to catch up on what's been happening with the old timers and get to know the new ones.

This year's campers were an enthusiastic bunch and I found myself looking forward to being able to spend time with them. Greeting them when they arrived on Sunday, stopping in to see them throughout the week until it was time to say good-bye on Friday and looking forward to the next group made for an enjoyable time. This summer's camp theme was "Believe In Yourself" and many profound thoughts came from the lively discussions. It was good for all of us to recognize the gifts we have and believe in our own ability to accomplish our goals.

To further promote the theme, the campers and staff put on a musical production at the closing ceremony each week. The musical was loosely based on the story of "The Wizard of Oz" and it was a crowd pleaser each week. Earlier in the summer I spoke with Tami Aldrin, who, along with Cindy Melchor, produced and directed the camp musicals in the days of Apple Acres and Butternut Springs. Tami graciously agreed to write the script, choreograph the dancing, select the music, gather the props and direct the first week and we were in business! Each week I eagerly looked forward to the dress rehearsal on Thursday followed by the performance on Friday and I was always rewarded with superb entertainment! From the rainbow dance to the roaring lion to the unique moves of the scarecrow to the "melting" of the wicked witch to the mayor of Munchkinland complete with white tuxedo jacket and gold top hat, it was delightful! Even the "tornado" was set to music and finer tornado dancers couldn't be found anywhere! The wizard came through with brains, courage and a heart and reminded Dorothy to believe in herself and that belief returned her safely to Camp Sharing Meadows. Tami did an outstanding job and her dedication brought much enjoyment to the people who participated and the audience, who roared with laughter throughout each performance and were effuse with their applause!

During each performance I found myself watching the expressions on the faces of the campers as they did their very best and witnessing their reactions to the audience's praise and gratitude. They beamed with delight and put a little more effort into their moves with each burst of applause. All of us like to be recognized and appreciated and our campers are certainly no exception! Being valued and appreciated is one of the reasons Camp Sharing Meadows is such a special place and, like the campers, I am happy to be part of it!

SHARE CLASSIC

June 28th was a beautiful day at Innsbrook Country Club full of sunshine and the smiling faces of golfers as they participated in the Share Classic. The event included a delicious lunch, a round of golf with many contests along the way, and a joyful dinner where friends could catch up and share stories from the day. The foursomes were competing in a scramble in hope of being awarded the coveted first place trophy. First place went to our Ace sponsor, Indiana Institute of Cardiology - George Grcevich, Jeff Peschke, Dennis Lewis, and Dennis Babcock. The second place team was Jay Huyser, Sue Huyser, Steve Dahlkamp and John Dahlkamp. The third place team was Father Dennis Blaney, Mike Shikany and Tony Maicher.

Congratulations to the following winners of the drawing:

- 1st Place - Ken Kniola, Michigan City, IN
- 2nd Place - Teddy Kulka, Hamlet, IN
- 3rd Place - Melissa Beifuss, Chesterton, IN

Also, there are many people to thank for making the Share Classic such a success. Thank you to each participant who played a round of golf that day. We enjoyed having each and every one of you there and hope to see you and other friends next year. Thank you to the local businesses that donated door prizes for our participants and that sponsored holes on the course. Thank you to our Ace Sponsor – Indiana Institute of Cardiology and to our Eagle Sponsors – Dan's Body Shop, Globe Star and Horizon Investment Services. Finally, thank you to the Share Classic committee for your hard work – Tony McCrovitz (chairman), Tom Hathoot, Randy Grdinich and Rich Miller, Jr.

PLANNED GIVING CENTER

Becoming Tax Savvy

This month we're going to focus on a few of the specific tax advantages that you as a donor should be aware of when making a charitable gift. The following examples are just that—examples—and we offer them in the hopes that you might get a clearer picture of the potential tax savings available to you. As always, when planning a sizeable gift you should consult your financial adviser about how charitable donations affect your particular financial situation.

Did you know that Congress has created many tax incentives for donors making charitable gifts? These incentives are “subsidies” in effect, and require the government to share with you in the cost of making a charitable donation. Consider these examples:

Example: You decide to donate $1,000 to the Share Foundation capital campaign. The gift generates a $1,000 income tax deduction. If your income is taxed at a 31% marginal rate, the deduction produces a tax savings of $310 (the government “subsidy” of your gift). The net cost to you: $690.

Example: After serious consideration, you decide to make a $10,000 bequest in your will to the Share Foundation endowment fund. The bequest generates a $10,000 estate tax deduction. If your estate is taxed at a 55% marginal rate, the deduction produces an estate tax savings of $5,500. In this case, the government “subsidy” is more than one-half the value of the gift!

Suppose you and your spouse have decided to make a lifetime gifts of appreciated property? Such gifts generate even greater tax savings because the donor avoids paying capital gains taxes.

Example: Years ago you purchased stock for $10,000. Today the stock's value has doubled and is worth $20,000! If you decide to make a lifetime gift of the stock to Share Foundation, you will generate an income tax deduction of $20,000. If your income is taxed at a 31% marginal rate, the deduction produces a $6,100 income tax savings. Moreover, you will not have to pay any taxes on the capital gains. If your capital gains are taxed at a rate of 20%, the gift avoids capital gains taxation of $2,000 (20% times $10,000 gain). Total tax savings: $8,100.

If you have specific questions about how to make a planned gift to the Share Foundation, please feel free to contact our office.

Next month: Deferred Planned Gifts

SUMMER CAMP

It is hard to believe that another summer at Camp Sharing Meadows has come to an end. The St. Timothy Center seems to echo with the laughter and conversation of the campers and staff who participated in camp. There were five full weeks that each included about 25 campers, 10 counselors, 3 cooks, 1 nurse and of course the camp director. Gilda Hernandez, a student at Notre Dame University, served as camp director. She planned activities and led a teaching & discussion group each morning to encourage campers to believe in themselves by sharing personal experiences and reading passages from the Bible. The theme of believing in ourselves was reinforced throughout the week with skits, games and a play. Campers practiced the play everyday and eventually performed for their family and friends at the closing ceremony on Friday afternoon. The campers enjoyed showcasing their talents on stage by singing and dancing. Working on the play kept campers busy along with other activities including swimming, boating, hiking, playing games, eating, telling stories, making crafts and dancing.

Camp is truly an experience that campers and staff look forward to all year round. Campers cherish the chance to be listened to and valued for their gifts. Staff are touched by the openness and loving nature of the campers. Many friendships were made during these five weeks that will last for years to come. We are already looking forward to welcoming everyone back to camp next summer. Hidden winner: Jim & Jane Mack, Michigan City, IN 46360
