FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

The Good News newsletter is completed the 15th day of the month before it is mailed. This is being written before the actual Leprechaun Hunt©. As of now, everything is coming together. The food, the music, our villager's dance, the tents, the prepaid tickets – all are organized. This promises to be the best Leprechaun Hunt© ever! And the weather this summer has been great so far. I haven't had much time free to figure out where to hide the leprechauns. So they will all probably be easily found! Curses!

I know this year's Leprechaun Hunt© will be a great family day with loads of fun!

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Kathleen Kelly

It's happening again! Time is flying by and I can hardly believe we've passed the mid point of summer with our annual summer camp a fond memory for all the participants. They reveled in all of the activities: dancing, arts and crafts, swimming, games, fishing, hiking, horses, campfires and friendship. They prayed together each day to thank God for the many gifts He has blessed them with. They enjoyed the entertainers who came and especially enjoyed each other. Friendships were made and bonds were strengthened. Meaningful discussions took place at the daily values session focused around the theme of "Forgiveness."

Forgiveness was not only discussed, it was practiced! The dictionary defines the word forgive as the act of granting pardon and to cease feeling resentment against another. One of the campers described it in a simple yet beautiful way when he stated, "Forgiveness - peace." Wow! He intuitively knew that peace comes from forgiving the hurts we have experienced and to love unconditionally. Each camper participated in the discussions and was able to describe their own experiences of hurt, forgiveness and ultimately, peace and that peace will stay with them long after summer is over.

From its beginning over 30 years ago, our camp has been a values retreat and we've always been proud of the values aspect that sets it head and shoulders above the rest. I was speaking with the parents of one of our campers this summer and they told me they had asked their daughter which camp she wanted to attend. She said she wanted to come to Sharing Meadows because "We pray there." The values retreat and praying together helps the campers become more aware of God's presence in their lives. The campers go home with a renewed sense of the unfailing strength of God's love for them. It's an enriching way to spend time each summer and I am happy to be part of it. Camp is a good program that gets better each year and we look forward to many more years of growing together in God's love.

CAMP SHARING MEADOWS

The Hoosier Grandpas entertained with song

Summer camp 2009 is but a memory but what a great memory it is! For six weeks, the St. Timothy Center Camp Building was filled with friendship, music, activity and joy! The days of camp were filled with swimming, fishing, dancing, arts & crafts, games, campfires, and plenty of good food. Entertainers came to perform and horses came each week so the campers could ride and pet them. Most importantly, the values session, led each day by camp coordinator Sandy Furman, centered around the theme of "Forgiveness" and each person at camp participated and shared their stories of the peace that comes from following Christ's example by forgiving others.

Skits are performed by each color group

Our campers were awesome and our staff members were outstanding which made for a camp that will be remembered for a long time! While we will take a hiatus from camp for the month of August, mini camp weekends will begin again in the fall with the next one scheduled for September 11-13. We hope to see many of our friends there! Hidden Winner: Jeff Kondra, Hammond, IN 46323.

SUMMERTIME AND THE FISHING IS EASY

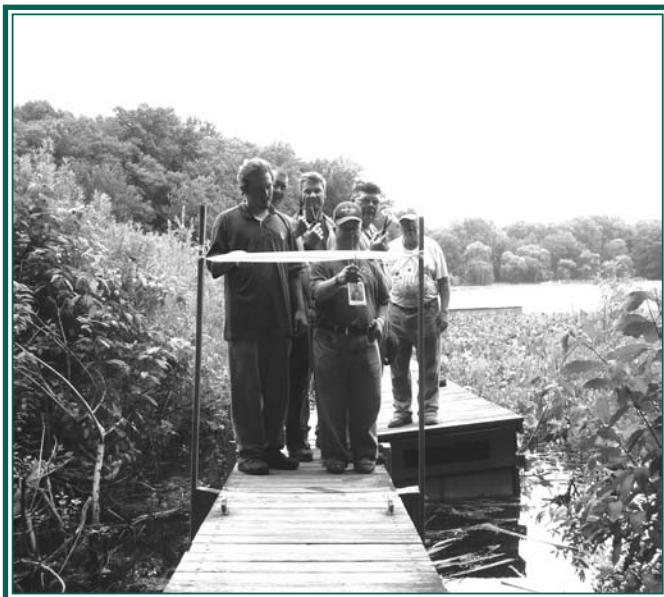

Do you know where Hog Lake is located? It is one of the north boundaries of Sharing Meadows. Our newest village – the Village of St. Jane and St. Joan – is quite close. We wanted a pier on Hog Lake for our villagers to go boating and fishing and even fishing from the pier. But the lily pads were out 160' and that would take a very long sized pier!

Well, the Horse Shoe Casino of Hammond moved out into the water. They took over the space of several piers from the Hammond Marina. My cousin, Vern Blaney, is always looking for deals. And he worked as an iron worker close by to the Hammond Marina. Vern contacted Keith Carey – God bless him – the harbormaster of the Hammond Marina. Keith agreed to give us 5 of those used piers. But transportation was another issue. Those piers weighed about 4000 lbs. or more. I happened to visit Phil Faroh whose health was not up to par. During a conversation I mentioned the possibility of getting some heavy piers donated but didn't know how to transport them. Little did I know that Phil Faroh had worked at Aker Construction of Lake County, IN and his son Jim Faroh still does work there. A deal was made. God bless the Faroh's and the Aker Construction Co.

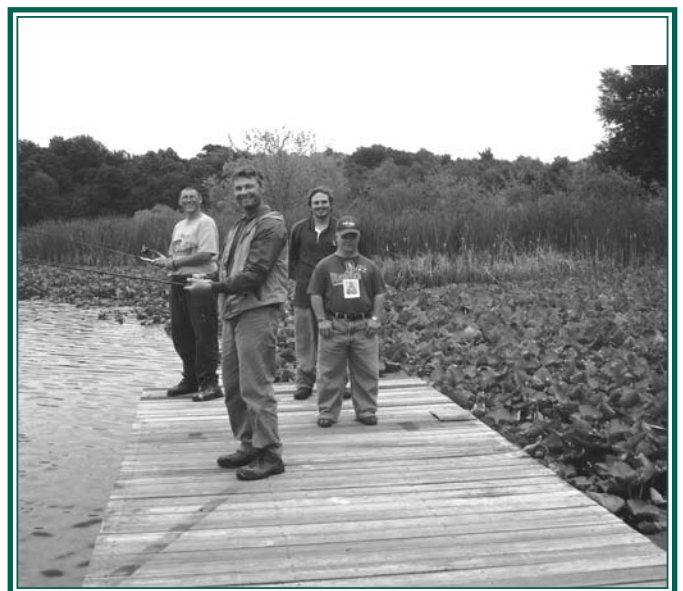

We now have a 160' pier with an 8' X 20' end – very adequate for fishing and docking a row boat. It is really a very comfortable pier – thanks to Keith Carey, the harbormaster and all the fine people at the Hammond Marina. Thanks also to Phil and Jim Faroh and the good people at Aker Construction Company. The donation of the piers and the transporting of them to here and set in the water was extremely generous.

There was also a lot of hard work getting the piers in line and fastening them together. Tom Parsons from Sharing Meadows led that crew that included Rick Fleming, one of our faithful volunteers. The pier was recently dedicated with a ribbon cutting ceremony.

It was an amazing development. Vern Blaney started it. God bless him! See what can happen when a person lets God direct!

The ribbon is waiting to be cut on the new pier
