FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

Currently I'm in one of the houses as a steward here at Sharing Meadows. From time to time when there is a need, I spend two weeks to a month. There I have my own bedroom and bath. The two villagers who live in the home can be full of fun. Their bedrooms are on the other side of the house. There's usually a bit of banter. There is a trip to the grocery store after figuring out what the meals will be and any needs of the household. Each home receives an ample allowance. And there are opportunities to work with the villagers during the day. This could be picking red raspberries, weaving rugs, working in our ceramics studio, caring for the lawns, canning our red raspberry applesauce or working in our woodshop. There are lots of interesting activities.

Evenings allow for a bit of card playing – Friday night is bowling night during the winter. Sometimes another home comes over for added fun. Each week allows me two days off to check out my home etc.

Hey, how's about you coming out here to live in one of the homes for a few weeks? You may have an empty nest and still want to nurture. There is a modest salary along with room and board.

Make a difference in your life by making a difference in their lives! If you would like more details, call Bob Hess or Father Blaney at 219-778-2585. You'll enjoy it!

SHARE OUR DREAMS

The Share Our Dreams 14th Annual Gala is scheduled for November 7th, only a few short weeks away and we need your help to make it a success for the other-abled adults who are part of the Share Foundation family. Each and every one of you is invited to attend this delightful evening. For those of you who have never attended a Gala, this is the year to come and experience. For a donation of $100, you will have a wonderful dinner with your favorite beverage, dance to the Tom Milo Band, and have the chance to bid on a variety of wonderful items, just in time to help with your Christmas shopping! The Gala is your opportunity to expand your social circle and meet other giving individuals who support Sharing Meadows. Our guests truly make the Gala such a special event.

Consider sponsoring a table to make your night even more enjoyable. Each sponsored table seats ten people and gives you mention in the program. Tables can also be sponsored by business owners to entertain and reward employees, visit with family members or stay in touch with friends.

Please keep the Share Our Dreams Gala and Silent Auction in mind when planning for the fall. For a reasonable price, you can enjoy an entire evening while taking comfort that all proceeds benefit other-abled adults through Share Foundation's many programs. To reserve your place, please contact the office at 219-778-2585. Hidden Winner: Marge Bomersback, Hammond, IN 46324.

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Kathleen Kelly

I was taking a walk around Sharing Meadows with some of our new villagers and we were admiring some of the maple trees whose leaves are just beginning to change color. As we continued to walk, we saw a few black walnuts on the ground and realized that autumn is definitely approaching! With the coming of fall, we see many physical changes on the grounds of Sharing Meadows – the mums are blooming, the once green leaves are turning crimson, orange and gold, mornings are cooler and summer's flowers are drying up.

While changes on the property are quite evident with the change of the seasons, the most significant changes can be seen in our villagers. Each season I notice them gaining confidence, learning new tasks, and reveling in the joy of growth.

One of our new villagers, who has only lived here for a few months, recently spent the day making raspberry jam. To some people, it would be just another job to do but to our villager, it was an adventure and she enjoyed it thoroughly. She told me it was the first time she had made jam and filled me in on all the details – the ingredients, the cooking process, and best of all, the finished jars that she was so very proud of. As she spoke, her eyes became brighter and brighter and her voice became more animated, making her delight apparent to all. I pointed out to her that many people do not know how to make jam and that she can be proud of her accomplishments. Whether they are making jam, cutting grass, harvesting black walnuts, cleaning the camp building or any other task, the villagers realize they are engaged in meaningful, productive work and that realization gives them a great deal of satisfaction and self worth. It a privilege to witness them develop and use their talents to grow to be the people God created them to be.

Seeing the changes in the villagers adds a new dimension to the fall season. Change can be difficult for some of us to accept but the villagers embrace it with enthusiasm and joy. They are truly works in progress and I know that the best of the villagers is yet to come.

FORCEY GUESTHOUSE RENTAL

A home away from home, the beautiful Forcey House can be rented on occasion for small retreats or meetings. The home has three large bedrooms each complete with individual bathrooms, a great room with huge windows so you can enjoy the beautiful fall colors on the trees, and a comfortable screened in porch overlooking Tucker Lake. This B & B will serve continental as well as full breakfasts according to your desires.

Please call the office (219-778-2585) for more details.

SILENT AUCTION DONORS

Attention Business Owners:

The Share Our Dreams Gala Committee is requesting your support to make the Silent Auction the Best yet. We are in need of any new product or service you would be willing to donate for the Silent Auction that is being held on November 7th at the Share Our Dreams Gala. All of the money raised during the auction will fund the Share Foundation's programs for other-abled adults. A donation from your business would be greatly appreciated. Share Foundation is a privately funded organization and also has 501(c)(3) status making all donations tax deductible to the extent permitted. Please call the Share Foundation office with any items you would be able to donate.

SHARING MEADOWS PRODUCT OF THE MONTH

The villagers and stewards have been busy weaving multicolored, hand-loomed rugs. These colorful additions to your hallways and kitchens are available in a variety of colors and lengths. These rugs can be bought at the Gift Shop, through the website (www.sharefoundation.org) or by telephone (219-778-2585) for $ .50 per inch, plus $5 handling/shipping for each piece.

If you come by to visit, consider picking up a wide-mouth jar of fresh, flavorful raspberry jam. The villagers picked raspberries by the buckets during the summer and the jam has just been made. An 8 oz. jar of this delicacy can be purchased at the Gift Shop. (Sorry, but it does not ship well.)

OCTOBER MINI CAMP & HALLOWEEN DANCE

The next monthly mini-camp is scheduled for October 24 – 26th at Camp Sharing Meadows. As always, camp begins at 7:00 p.m. on Friday night and the fun doesn't stop until after the closing ceremony on Sunday at 2:00 p.m. Campers will be active playing games, making art projects, participating in a group discussion about our responsibility to our families, eating meals prepared by our great cooks, socializing with the other campers and counselors, and one of the most popular parts of the weekend: dancing!!!

Whether you are attending mini-camp or not, everyone is invited to the costume dance that will be held on Saturday, October 25th. The dance starts at 6:30 p.m. and lasts until 9:00 p.m. This is a perfect opportunity to socialize with people from all over the area! For only $2, you can dance the night away and enjoy refreshments to keep you energized. Don't forget to wear your favorite and most original costume to celebrate Halloween! To register for mini-camp or to learn more about the dance, please call Sandy at the Share Foundation office at 219-778-2585.

Our website on the Internet, www.sharefoundation.org, continues to attract visitors from all over the country. Last month we had 89,276 hits from people in the United States, France, the UK, Ukraine, Germany, Argentina, Sweden and Denmark.
