FROM THE DESK OF FATHER BLANEY...

I've recently returned from a vacation in Ireland. Not one drop of rain fell on me head – beautiful weather. I revisited the Spaniard, a pub in Kinsale. Kathy Kelly Sinnott first introduced me to it years ago. It is a great place for both food and music.

In one of the churches, the priest spoke of thanking God. He did so in a very simple and human way. Each morning and night there should be an opportunity to thank God for the gifts of the day and the real help given to accomplish them. The realization of thankfulness together with the insight into God's help, brings a flood of joy that God loves us.

Thanksgiving is not just a one day per year. It is a life style. We need to be more thankful people. As a real human person, we need to be thankful each day. I am personally thankful for all of you who have so much helped Sharing Meadows and its villagers become what it is. You have cooperated with God in bringing about a place where thanks is a life style. Thanks! God bless you!!

Funds from the Knights of Columbus subsidize the Camp Values Retreats.

God Bless the Knights for their faithful generosity!

THOUGHTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Kathleen Kelly

Sharing Meadows is a beautiful place filled with God's presence but especially so in the autumn. Every variety of tree – and we have many of them - are ablaze with vibrant colors - reds, yellows and oranges; the mums are in full bloom, black walnuts and almonds are on the ground waiting to be gathered, and the air is crisp and invigorating. It's a time to celebrate the splendor of the world God created for us. There is so much to be thankful for!

Thanksgiving is a joyful holiday and a perfect opportunity to reflect on the many blessings we have been granted. God has blessed the community of Sharing Meadows abundantly with His goodness and especially through the people who call it home. Our villagers are amazing people with many gifts to share. They love unconditionally, affirm freely, always lend a helping hand and truly make Sharing Meadows a special place. When visitors come they are welcomed with great joy and they leave with a lighter step and a warm feeling of being loved and valued.

Our villagers came here with many talents that God gave them along with values and a sense of belonging that came from their parents. Since then, they have grown under the loving guidance of our stewards who have encouraged and nurtured the villagers to become the persons God created them to be. Witnessing the villager's growth is joyful and gives me so much to be thankful for. The physical beauty of the grounds of Sharing Meadows is secondary to the inner beauty of our villagers and stewards. They come together and grow in God's love as they share their journey.

Our present group of 24 villagers has been so blessed and experienced so much joy; we realize that the time has come to add to our community. The villagers bring it all together because their presence is the reason Sharing Meadows must continue to be. We are beginning to plan for the 5th and final village and we will need your loving support to see us through. Our villagers and stewards are looking forward to welcoming new people – new friends – to join them at Sharing Meadows. They realize what a good place this is and they want others to know the same joy that they experience each and every day.

Our prayers of Thanksgiving extend to all of you who have helped us come so far. We continue to pray for you as we thank God for your faithful support and we ask for your continued prayers and encouragement to give us hope as we strive for growth. My heart is filled with gratitude this Thanksgiving as I thank God for blessing Sharing Meadows abundantly. As I thank God for the community of Sharing Meadows, I realize that the best is yet to come!

36th ANNIVERSARY

36 years of GOOD NEWS! As we begin our 37th year of publishing our monthly newsletter, our hearts are full of gratitude to the many people who have made this publication possible. Tom and Laurel Kuczynski, owners of McKay Printing have continued to print the newsletter each month at no cost to Share Foundation and we are humbled and grateful for their generosity. Thanks too to the many people who show up faithfully each month to affix labels and get the newsletter ready for mailing. Most of all, thanks to our friends, our faithful readers who have supported and encouraged us for the last 36 years. We look forward to bringing you many more years of GOOD NEWS!

WISH LIST

If you happen to have a few pieces of COTTON FABRIC and would like to donate it for our vocational training, please call the office (219.778.2585). We are expanding our sewing and fabric crafts program here at Sharing Meadows, so our wish list includes cotton fabrics, either plain or with small prints. Thank you.

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING AT SHARING MEADOWS

The pine cone Christmas tree adds to the holiday spirit

Avoid the crowds at the mall this year and support the villagers of Sharing Meadows at the same time. Our gift shop is filled with many lovely items made by the villagers during their vocational training. We have many unique ceramic pieces, pine cone Christmas trees, handcrafted wooden birdfeeders, planters, birdhouses and storage chests; and hand woven rugs, placemats and dish towels. There are also jars of black walnuts, red raspberry jam and red raspberry applesauce to stuff a stocking or fill in a basket. They have fruit pies in a variety of flavors – apple, blueberry and apple walnut raisin – perfect for your holiday dinner. New this year is a beautiful assortment of mosaic items in a rainbow of colors: flower pots, lawn ornaments and even a mosaic checkerboard complete with checkers! The wine bottle lamps are available in holiday décor as well as the favorite team for the sports enthusiast on your list. All of these items are available in the gift shop at the St. Timothy Center and it is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 am – 3:00 pm and weekends by appointment.

Some of the items can be shipped and you can arrange that by calling Kerry at the Share office at 219-778-2585. Take a drive to Sharing Meadows and peruse the gift shop. You'll be impressed by the artistic talent of our residents and be happy with the lovely items they have to offer. Hidden Winner: Richard Resler, Brazil, IN 47834.
